COVID-19

As required by Transport Canada, front-line representatives will ask all travellers for proof of vaccination with government issued photo ID, and to answer specific health check questions prior to travel. Travellers who knowingly provide any false or misleading information about their health may be subject to a penalty of up to $5,000. Travellers are required to wear a removable face mask to cover their mouth and nose at all times during the check-in and boarding process, and for the duration of the flight.

Helijet continues to participate in the Helicopter Association International COVID Clean Pledge and World Travel & Tourism Council's Safe Travels program to meet or exceed any applicable public health regulations. As well, Helijet agents have completed the BSAFE Training Program which ensures everyone has a strong foundation in current health and safety knowledge, across the BC tourism and hospitality industry, to increase guest and community confidence during recovery.
