COVID-19

As required by Transport Canada, front-line representatives will ask all travellers for proof of vaccination with government issued photo ID, and to answer specific health check questions prior to travel. Travellers who knowingly provide any false or misleading information about their health may be subject to a penalty of up to $5,000. Travellers are required to wear a removable face mask to cover their mouth and nose at all times during the check-in and boarding process, and for the duration of the flight. See your confirmation email for more details about COVID-19 protocols.

Helijet continues to keep our passengers' health and safety at the forefront by meeting or exceeding Public Health procedures and protocols, and participating in the Helicopter Association International COVID Clean Pledge, World Travel & Tourism Council's Safe Travels and the BSAFE Training Program to ensure everyone has an ongoing foundation in health and safety.
